

London for teens

London offers a lot to see and do to kids and teens. There are many sights and museums for teens and a lot of green spaces. The map below shows some of the main places of interest.

1. Work in pairs. Look at the map; then, complete the sentences on the right with the appropriate names, as in the example.

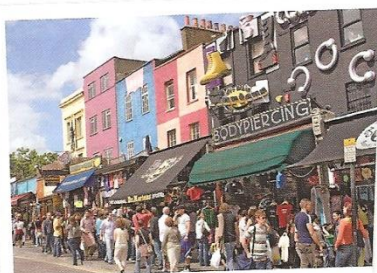

2. Fill in the Itinerary Builder below with information from Exercise 1.

SIGHTS	GET OFF THE TUBE AT...	WORTH A VISIT IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN...
	Tower Hill	History
		Literature
		The environment
		Wildlife
		Horror
		Shopping
		Celebrities
		Amazing views of London

London Eye

Camden Town

Tower Bridge

2

LIFE SKILLS

1. If you want to take a picture with your favourite celebrity, don't miss Madame Tussauds Waxworks Museum, near Baker Street tube station.
2. Enjoy one of the best views of London from the _____, a panoramic wheel on the Thames near Waterloo tube station.
3. Discover the _____, an ancient castle, home to the Crown Jewels, near Tower Hill tube station.
4. The _____ is a scary horror attraction near London Bridge tube station: don't visit it if you get scared easily!
5. The _____ is in Baker Street, near Baker Street tube station, where the famous detective and his assistant Dr. Watson lived in Conan Doyle's stories.
6. You can see 600 species of animals at the _____ in Regent's Park, near Camden Town tube station.
7. In Regent Street there's _____, the most famous toy shop in the world, near Oxford Circus tube station.
8. You can't spend the night there, but the _____ near South Kensington tube station is certainly worth a visit, especially for the huge dinosaur in the entrance hall.

3. Read Mary's plans for her visit to London.

London is fantastic!

First, I want to go to the Tower of London, because I'm interested in history. I must take the tube to Tower Hill. Then, I want to go to the Natural History Museum because I like the environment, I must take the tube to South Kensington.

Finally I want to go to Hamleys and Oxford Street because I love shopping. I must take the tube to Oxford Circus.

4. Now plan your own visit to London. Use Mary's plan as a model.